SUNNY SQUIBBLES

People are having to live in cramped quarters in these times, but the skilled house planner can find room for the cook stove under the bed.

President Taft used to have an extra strong chair to sit in, but Candidate Harding is more in need of braces for his front porch.

The coal miners who try to get their way by freezing the country to death, are not probably the only people in the world capable of swinging a pick.

A survey of college entering classes raises the question if many young men are not neglecting the great opportunities in the plumbing and brick laying trades.

Mrs. Wesley Reagan

Dead at Newport

Mrs. Wesley Reagan died at her home on Northern Ave. on Friday afternoon after a long illness caused by cancer. Mrs. Reagan was 59 years of age and was born in Wisconsin, but had lived for many years in Newport Center. She is survived by her husband, Wesley Reagan, and her daughter, Mrs. Roy Leach, who has given her every care during these last weeks.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at Newport Center, in the Advent church, preceded by a short prayer service at her home here.

ALLEGED AUTO THIEF LODGED IN COUNTY JAIL

State's Attorney James B. Campbell and Sheriff Wilbur Worthen returned today from Montreal with Alfred Desrochers, 22 years old, who is charged with larceny of goods from the Economy Garage at Lyndonville and who is said to know more than he cares to tell of the doings of the gang of Canadians who stole an automobile at Quebec a week ago Sunday night and abandoned the car at Lyndonville going away with a Studebaker car which was in storage at the Economy garage. Desrochers has been lodged in the St. Johnsbury jail awaiting the further actions of the authorities who are on the trail of the other members of the gang of auto thieves.

Desrochers was arrested by the Montreal police who had been notified of the theft of the Studebaker car owned by Henry G. Marvin of Camden, South Carolina, whose folks were visiting friends in Lyndonville. The Studebaker car has not yet been located but some of the material stolen from the Economy garage was located in the house where Desrochers lived in Montreal.

Some important developments in the case are expected later in the week as the Montreal police are hot on the trail of the gang of five men who stole the Quebec car which was partly wrecked in West Burke and then got away with the Studebaker car from Lyndonville.

PRESS COMMENT

(Barre Times)

Three people out of every ten mispronounce the name of Vermont's Republican nominee for governor, calling it Harkness instead of Hartness. If they remember there's a heart in Vermont's next governor they will recall how to pronounce his name.

LIME WATER NOT BEST FOR INFANTS

It is now a well-known fact that lime water is constipating, a distinct disadvantage to its use as an antacid, and especially so in the case of infants and children. Physicians now agree that a high grade Milk of Magnesia is the best antacid for general use. It is many times more effective than lime water as an antacid and being mildly laxative as well, it is free from the objections that apply to lime water. It is also superior to chalk in its various forms because chalk is constipating and frequently causes flatulence. It is superior to bicarbonate of soda because of the latter's disagreeable taste and tendency to cause flatulence and nausea. It is superior to the various solid forms of magnesia because of the latter's tendency (not being entirely soluble) to cause dangerous concretions during continued use, whereas Milk of Magnesia is entirely soluble in the acids of the stomach and intestines and possesses all the virtues and more of the disadvantages that apply to the solid forms of magnesia.

In addition to its great value as an antacid, useful alike for young and old, Milk of Magnesia is highly valuable as a laxative. It is preferable to the great majority of laxatives because it does its work without causing nausea or griping. Wherever an antacid or laxative is indicated, Milk of Magnesia is extremely valuable.

REXALL MILK OF MAGNESIA is best. It is made full U. S. Pharmacopoeial strength and purity and by a process peculiar to this brand alone, which makes it a most elegant and stable compound almost tasteless, it is pleasant to take, highly efficacious and reliable and not in any way injurious. Be sure to get REXALL MILK OF MAGNESIA at the Rexall Drug Store, as it is not obtainable at any other.
